Public Comments:

Public Hearing (PBPC-21001)

The purpose of this hearing is for public comments regarding the proposed text amendments to the Town of Perdido Beach Land Use and Zoning Ordinance pertaining to:

Articles:

- I – Purpose, Enactment and Short Title
- II – Establishment of Zoning Districts
- III - Rural Districts
- IV – Residential Districts
- V – Commercial Districts
- X – Overlay Districts
- XII – General Requirements
- XIII – Design Standards
- XIX (A) – Administrative Procedures
- XXII – Definitions
- Figure 1 – Table of Permitted Uses

Chairman Chris Head began the public hearing at 6:43 p.m. He read the Land Use and Zoning Ordinance proposed changes and encouraged discussion from the town members in attendance.

Property owner, Thomas Toombs, brought up his objection to the proposed change to Article XIII, Design Standards, Section 13.1.2 (g). After discussion between the commission members and SARPC representative, Diane Burnett, it was decided that this proposed change should be further reviewed.

A motion was made by Mayor Kae Hamilton and seconded by Vice Chairman Brent Spears to table the vote on making the recommendation to the town council for proposed changes to the Land Use and Zoning Ordinance. All others were in favor.

The public hearing was closed at 7:44 p.m.
